The Intimacy of Memory Workshop invites participants to create a piece of art based on objects they have kept after someone they care about passed away. Through guided conversation and facilitated art-making using painting, collage, etc., the workshop seeks to deepen participants’ understandings of themselves and their loss and to build human connection with art as a bridge. All art supplies provided.

For interested participants, final creations can be displayed in a fall exhibit in the Slater Gallery at Tufts alongside the works of Nancy Marks.

No prior experience is required, just a willingness to be creative!
